Baby is happy when he gets Pears' because the soap is so gratifyingly refreshing.

Pears produces that matchless complexion which has made it famous.

For over a hundred years the wisdom combined in PEARS' SOAP has enabled it to maintain its supremacy in the face of world-wide competition.

It beautifies the complexion, keeps the hands white and fair and imparts a constant bloom of freshness to the skin.

As it is the best and lasts longest, it is the cheapest; when worn to the thinness of a wafer, moisten and stick the worn piece on the new cake. Never a particle is lost.

So long as fair, white hands, a bright, clear complexion and a soft, healthful skin add beauty and attractiveness, so long will PEARS' SOAP hold first place in the good opinion of men and women.

Pears' leaves the skin smooth, cool, comfortable. Pears invented the shaving stick.

The comfort of old age,—Pears' Soap keeps the skin fair and the face young.

Of all Scented Soaps Pears' Otto of Rose is the best.

All rights secured.

THIS Code of Laws, the oldest known to man, was discovered only a few years ago. King Hammurabi collected the laws as they were administered in the Babylonian courts, attached his own name to this first written code, promulgated it as the law of the land, and thus fixed judicial procedure not only for his own time, but for all succeeding centuries of Babylonian national existence. No more important document has come down to us; in it are reflected the customs, morals, religion, business relations, in short the whole Weltanschauung of the ancient Babylonians. The fact that the book is now in its second edition attests the popular favor accorded to this adequate English version of the laws

Assyrian and Babylonian Letters Belonging to the Kouyunjik Collection of the British Museum, Part IX

By ROBERT FRANCIS HARPER.

THIS is the ninth of a series of volumes planned to contain all the Letters of the Kouyunjik Collection. This series, numbering about eighteen volumes, contains the texts, printed in the cuneiform type of Messrs. Harrison & Sons, of London. A later series will consist of the transliterations, translations, and glossary, and will number as many more volumes.

Part IX is an index volume, giving lists of all the proper names, officials, divinities, countries, peoples, cities, etc., found in Parts I–VIII, with references to their British Museum registration numbers, and to the numbers which they bear in this series.

“The immense utility of this undertaking is too obvious to require any comment, and the author, who has already spent eleven years upon it, hopes to continue publishing the texts until the Corpus Epistolarum is completed.”—L. in the Asiatic Quarterly Review.

The volumes are all octavo size, bound in cloth, with about 120 plates of texts.
